Comic Male Quartette

JOHN MARTIN

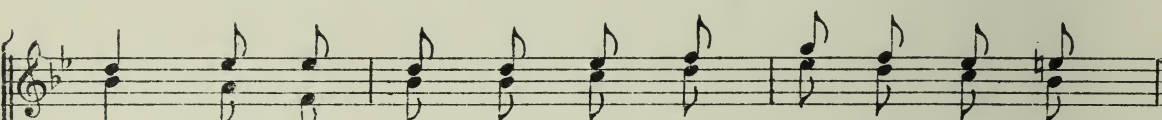

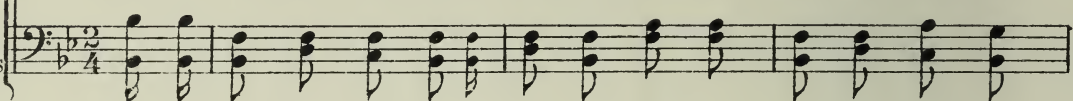

Arr. by Fred K. Huffer.

I.Tenor
II.Tenor

When the boarders hear the din-ner bell And gath-er 'round the
When I take my girl to a swell ca-fe And ask "what are you My moth-er in law was ver-y sick We thot that she was
When I got married years a-go My wife was quite good ta-ble; They eat what-ev-er they are served As eat-ing?" She an-swers "Oy-s-ers and Cham-pagne" Lord, dy-ing And ev-ry bod-y in the room (Ex look-ing; But we were near-ly starved, be-cause. She fast as they are a-ble; Roast beef, veal or how my heart starts beat-ing; I've just got one cept ing me) was cry-ing. But she's up and was no good at cook-ing; So I 'bought some corn beef hash Stewed prunes and a cup of tea Is the dol-lar bill And I'm in an aw-ful stew; So I 'round to day Strong as ev-er on her legs; For they Ham and Eggs Put 'em on the fry-ing pan, From bill of fare at the boarding house But here's the bill for me.

tell the wait-er to bring us on Some Ham and Eggs for two.
brought her back from the ver-y grave With a dish of Ham and Eggs.
that day all my troubles ceased And I'm a hap-py man.

CHORUS.

H - A - M and eggs, there's noth-ing in the world can beat; They go to the spot when-ev-er I long for some-thing good to eat The Dutch-man loves his sau-er kraut And the Frenchman fried frog legs; But when I'm hun-gry, what I want is H - A - M and eggs.

Ham and eggs. 2.
